Important Notice (for Thai Style Weddings):

Since couples choose a religious ceremony we have to strictly respect customs. The couple will be briefed on the ceremony and the meaning of all events. Since this ceremony is much different from the Western Wedding Ceremony, we have to make couples aware of certain customs where we cannot make any compromise between "both worlds":

- Wedding Dress:We will gladly provide the bride with a Thai dress (advance notice is required). Should the bride, however, prefer to wear her own dress, she must be aware of the customs (i.e. not low shoulders covering the legs). All attending persons also have to strictly follow this dress code.
- Exchange of Rings:Thai weddings do not feature exchange of rings, however should this be needed we can request.
- Location :Ceremonies involving monks are only held indoors.
- Flowers:We can fulfill most requests regarding flowers. However, some flowers should not be associated with Thai weddings.
- Set-up:Thai Style weddings are pretty much fixed in their set-up and it might prove difficult if not impossible to accommodate special requests in this regard.
